

You Are Invited!

“Catch the Wave” 2010

WHAT: A one-day conference designed specifically for high school students with disabilities, who are considering post-secondary education (college or technical institute)

WHO:

- High school student with disabilities
- Parents of high school students with disabilities
- Teachers of high school students with disabilities
- High school guidance counselors

WHEN: Tuesday, April 27, 2010 9:00 am—3:00 pm (registration starting at 8:30)

WHERE:

Muenster University Center (MUC), USD, Vermillion, SD

Registration required! - $5.00 per person (includes lunch)

(Checks payable to Black Hills Special Services—mail to Bev Petersen, local transition liaison)

♦ Hear college students with disabilities talk about their experiences in college

♦ Visit with SD Adult Agency programs about services available to college students with disabilities

♦ See demonstrations of assistive technology computer devices that assist college students with disabilities

♦ Disability Coordinators from SD colleges will discuss services for college students

Sponsored by Transition Services Liaison Project

To register, contact Bev Petersen, Transition Liaison, at 605-367-5330 or email bev.petersen@state.sd.us

Registrations due by April 16, 2010.

If there is a need for special accommodations, please notify Bev by April 9, 2010.