Mission:

We provide services to people with disabilities who make independence their choice.

ADVOCACY

Teaching people with disabilities the skills needed to advocate for themselves.

INDEPENDENT LIVING SKILLS

Providing hands-on training in daily-living skills (cooking, budgeting, organizing and more).

INFORMATION AND REFERRAL

Connecting people with resources which can provide needed information to assist individuals to live independently.

PEER COUNSELING

Providing opportunities for people with disabilities to engage with others in small or large groups or on an individual basis.

TRANSITION

Facilitating the transition of individuals with disabilities from a nursing home to independent living; providing prevention services to individuals who choose to live independently and not in a nursing home or assisted living setting; and assisting youth to gain skills as they transition into adulthood.

COMMUNITY LIVING SERVICES

Assisting individuals in obtaining accessible, affordable housing, transportation, and other community living services.

HOME MODIFICATION ADAPTIVE DEVICES

Providing home modifications and adaptive devices, which could include ramps, lift chairs, bathroom modifications, reaches, canes, walkers and more.

TELECOMMUNICATION ADAPTIVE DEVICES

Providing adapted telecommunication services, which includes an emergency phone dialer.

AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT

Serving as educators and consultants for contractors, businesses, organizations, and individuals regarding the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) and its guidelines and requirements.

ASSISTIVE DAILY LIVING SERVICES

Providing services for people ages 18 and older, with physical disabilities affecting all four limbs, who need assistance with daily living activities. Services include program education and support and personal attendant services.

HOME AGAIN SOUTH DAKOTA

Providing options for older adults and/or people with disabilities living in nursing homes, hospitals, or long-term care facilities to enable them to successfully return to their homes and communities. Money Follows the Person helps individuals identify barriers to living on their own, helps them find a place to live that meets their needs, and helps them find the services and supports they need to continue living independently.
